

Building Schools for the Future

Interactive Voting Results

What is the most important thing about the appearance of your school building?

Welcoming	18
Inspiring	10
Modern	8
Unique	0
The appearance doesn't matter	0
Blend with the landscape	0
Total Voted	36

How would you improve classroom design?

Light and airy	19
Comfy chairs	16
Get rid of the teacher!	2
I wouldn't change anything	0
Seating for group work	0
Integrated ICT	0
Total Voted	37

*42 participants took place in this survey

Could this be a classroom of the future?

Could be good for group work	18
Could be used in combination with traditional classrooms	16
Good for individual work and research	8
Is strange	0
Difficult to concentrate	0
Total Voted	42

The most important thing about school outdoor space is:

Can be used for learning and leisure	23
Variety	10
Sheltered areas for bad weather	3
Safety	2
Provides something to do	0
Plenty of seating	0
Total Voted	38

Corridors need improving because:

The corridors get overcrowded	20
They are drab and boring	9
I feel like I'm walking miles	9
There's nothing I would change	0
It's easy to get lost	0
Total Voted	38

What about corridors designed for moving, socialising and teaching?

Create places so you can hang out and look cool	19
Have corridors so you can get from one place to another	10
Using the open areas for socialising (chatting, catching up on homework) during breaks and lunch	9
Use the corridors for activity sports	0
Where it's ok to be there working/learning without a teacher	0
Where lessons happen in these spaces with a teacher	0
Total Voted	38

Your School of the future? Your Vision?

Somewhere I can be happy and successful	19
Somewhere I want to go	15
Eco friendly	4
Lots of ways to learn	0
Welcoming	0
Inspiring	0
Total Voted	38

For more information on Building Schools for the Future contact:

Telephone: 01302 736033

Website: www.doncasterfusion.co.uk/BSF.html